BRIEF DESCRIPTION

These training sessions will provide an overview of the national culture change movement and the mission of the Arkansas Accord to spread the philosophy for person-directed care.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Explore national and state culture change initiatives aimed at promoting person-directed care.
- Review federal regulations that support the movement from institutional to individualized care.
- Learn leadership strategies that can expedite organizational change to adopt person-directed care.

- Translate person-directed care into actual practice to enhance individualized care and dispel barrier myths.
